Grand Lodge Nomination Guidelines

Constitutional changes approved at the 2015 Annual Communication regarding candidates for Grand Lodge office and our Board of General Purposes has necessitated revision of the process into two forms. The following are some guidelines regarding both.

CANDIDATE NOMINATION FORM

Ensure all areas identified as (required) are entered including but not limited to the Candidate's Certificate No. (located in base of a column on his MM certificate) and the Candidate's Email Address.

Submissions which do not include all (required) details will not be accepted.

For Occupation enter only the Active or only the Pre-Retired Occupation.

For Past Master enter only the Lodge the Candidate is longest a member.

Section 11 of the Book of Constitution identifies the Officers of Grand Lodge (all Right Worshipful brethren except the Grand Chaplain and Grand Director of Ceremonies are elected. The aforementioned and remaining Very Worshipful brethren are appointed)

Proposer and Candidate must sign this document.

Ensure page two, constitutional and other requirements are read and complied with.

CANDIDATE INFORMATION FORM

Ensure all areas identified as (required) are entered including but not limited to the Email Address.

Submissions which do not include all (required) details will not be accepted.

For Occupation enter only the Active or only the Pre-Retired Occupation.

For Occupation Experience enter the Job Description, Duties Performed, and Experience Gleaned.

Personal Experience / Information is limited to some 2,800 characters and may necessitate editing to fit.

Candidate must sign the document and include the nomination form, coloured photo and/or jpg.

Once completed the forms can be printed for signing by the Proposer and the Candidate, then surface mailed (with photo) to the Grand Lodge Office, at the address noted above or scanned and emailed (with jpg photo) to office@grandlodge.on.ca.

The Nomination List (including photo) will be distributed in April as in previous years. The Candidate Information forms will be collated and distributed to each lodge. The list and forms, and information contained therein will be made available to members.
