

At the time I received it, and news of an attempt to seize my possessions, I was dumbfounded and didn't understand how they pulled off this $65,000 judgment in favor of the New York State Department of Social Services. I was never aware of this nor was I in New York State and never once was I ever in a courtroom to get this judgment. That judgment is about what my house in Pennsylvania was worth at the time and it wasn't hard to figure out why they did this to me.

It was later discovered that the judgment was a complete forgery, with the "signatures" literal rubber stamps. Those responsible even tried to get it removed from court records in a cover-up but by law were unable to do so.

This is how a family court examiner in Suffolk County, New York worked with local police detectives who were looking for me to find out where I lived and to fabricate an illegal judgment against me to confiscate my grandfather's house. They abused the Family Court to cook up a weapon of mass destruction that haunts me still to this day. These are the documents and how the court examiner and others tried to cover it up over a six year period 1998 to 2004.

A copy of this was given to me later.

Note: On the same date, March 13, 2001, the Suffolk County SCU gave notice to the Department of Motor Vehicles that I had satisfied the requirements to avoid suspension of driving privileges.

Same account and docket number were given: BD94803C1 / F0245698.

A letter postmarked March 27, 2001 came from the Suffolk County Court in Central Islip, New York. Inside was a letter stating that the above (me) having come before court and duly submitted on March 16, 2001, had an order of dismissal from Judge Peter Dounias, signed and sealed with his name. Explaining my objections filed on December 13, 2001, he dismissed that I had failed to provide the court with a transcript of the proceedings in accord with Rule 205.37 as ordered on January 4, 2001.

First, the judge had me filing an appeal nine months into the future, and second, I was told from the hearing examiner himself, Philip Goglas, that I had no authority for getting any court transcripts or records pertaining to my case. This was one of the reasons why I had to retain legal aid from Joseph Orzechowski. On one occasion when he had tried to get me copies of such transcripts, there were none. He could give me no reason for this. Why?
