

The page is decorated with numerous red hearts of various sizes scattered across the background, primarily concentrated on the right side and top.

My dearest Marta,

As I sit down to write this letter, my heart is overflowing with love and gratitude for you. Our relationship is like a perfect road trip—filled with unplanned adventures, endless laughter, and deep conversations under the stars. I'll never forget that spontaneous weekend when we packed our bags with no destination in mind, just a shared playlist and the excitement of the unknown. We ended up by a quiet lakeside, dancing barefoot in the sand to our favorite song playing from the car speakers. That night, wrapped in a blanket under the sky full of stars, we talked about our dreams, our fears, and how we never wanted this feeling to end. It was in that moment, with nothing but moonlight and your warm embrace, that I knew—I never wanted to travel through life without you.

One of the things I love most about you is your incredible sense of humor. You always know how to make me laugh, even in the darkest of times. And speaking of laughter, do you remember the time we tried to bake cookies together? Somehow, we ended up with a smoke alarm going off and a kitchen covered in flour. We laughed so hard, tears were streaming down our faces, and you still insist to this day that it was my fault (even though I know you doubled the salt instead of the sugar 😊). That moment perfectly defines us—messy, chaotic, but always filled with love and laughter. No matter what we do, as long as we're together, it turns into an unforgettable memory.

As Valentine's Day approaches, I am filled with even more love and appreciation for you. You are my rock, my best friend, my everything. I promise to always cherish and adore you, and to continue to create beautiful memories with you by my side. I am grateful for every moment we have shared together and I cannot wait to see what the future holds for us.

With all my heart and soul,

John