Jesse Rontti

Support specialist / Business analytics student

📱 +358 453 949 450 ✉ jerontti@student.oulu.fi

Summary

Soon graduating and highly motivated student looking to learn more from data field. Interested in utilizing data and business analytics in companies. I am great with others when it comes to communication and also have experience in project management.

Career

2023 - Present

Enerim Oy

Thesis worker

- Title of thesis: "Utilizing business intelligence in technical operations team"
- Using design science research approach, I aim to implement BI tool as an artifact to help employees utilize existing data in operative level

2020 - Present

Enerim OY

Support specialist

- Part of support team focusing on energy industry SaaS production environments and data
- Solving incidents and performing data transformation for Datahub project
- Technologies used daily: PostgreSQL, MongoDB and other skills used to move data around DB's

Education

2020 - Present

MSc, Business analytics (Information processing science)

University of Oulu

- Final year master's student

2016 - 2020

BSc, Information processing science

University of Oulu

- Thesis subject: Invididual's data rights in Europe and USA
- Secondary studies in Statistics
- Exchange year in Kingston University London during 2018-2019

Main interests

Data analysis, Business intelligence, Database application development, sports (Golf, racket sports of all kind, Gym)