

German Teacher Job Description

German teachers are employed in schools, tertiary institutions, or private organizations where they provide German instruction to students. They may teach written and conversational German, and also administer assessments to evaluate progress. Classroom activities will vary depending on the level of German being taught.

German Teacher Job Description

We are searching for a passionate and dependable German teacher to join our team. The German teacher's responsibilities include teaching oral and written German, tailoring lesson plans to individual students or classes, and setting homework and assessments. You should be able to juggle a wide range of responsibilities including administrative tasks.

To be successful as a German teacher, you should be passionate about the German language and culture. Outstanding German teachers are energetic and able to inspire passion for the language in their students.

German Teacher Responsibilities:

- Developing lesson plans and curricula based on the needs of individual students.
- Providing conversational classes where pronunciation and important words and phrases are taught.
- Teaching writing and German composition classes.
- Conducting research on teaching methods, materials, and language games that can be used in class.

- Scheduling and preparing students for oral and written examinations.
- Monitoring student's progress by writing up reports and grading assessments.
- Organizing feedback sessions with students and their parents if applicable.
- Providing suggestions for further learning and scheduling intervention sessions with struggling students.
- Teaching students about German culture, which may include festivals, traditional food, and dress, and social conventions.
- Organizing fun events where students can showcase their German language skills.

German Teacher Requirements:

- Bachelor's or master's degree in German language, literature, or an equivalent may be required.
- Proven written and verbal proficiency in German.
- A teaching certificate or license may be required.
- Knowledge of and practical experience with tools like Moodle.
- Proficiency in MS Office.
- Strong interpersonal as well as written and verbal communication skills.
- Excellent analytical and problem-solving abilities.
- Well-organized and able to handle multiple responsibilities.
- Detail-oriented and resilient.