For the safety of you and everyone at the parade, please read the following:

Nephi, Utah, July 17, 2017 (Gephardt Daily)

When 11 yr old Grace Eyre suffered fatal injuries Friday during a parade, she had just jumped off the back of a pickup truck to distribute candy to spectators. The Nephi girl lost her footing and fell under the flatbed trailer the truck was pulling. Spectators hurried to offer aid, but the crushing injuries would cost Grace her life.

KATC-TV

Reports that witnesses say a child was struck by a vehicle pulling the float after entering the roadway for a piece of candy. KATC says the parade was stopped after the child was hit and then the parade was detoured.

These are the incidents that caused us to take these precautions.
We want to prevent any incident and by following all the rules set forth in this application we can increase the safety of all participants, spectators, and safety personnel.
