Background

Overview....

AHRG International Investments LLC has been existing since 2017 as a general investment company, pioneering various business aspects in commodity trade, oil & gas, agriculture, brokerage & facilitation, IT and real estate, managed by its sole founder and owner, Mr. Ahmed Jasim Mohammed Ali AlRaesi, who is also the team leader.

The Company is managed by an able team of executives representing consultation, administration, marketing, sales, and investment & finance. These executives bring to the company a vast & rich degree of experience in the investment industry through vast experience, unleveled market knowledge and the strong valuable networks established through long years of professional services. Under the leadership of Mr. Ahmed, the Team perceived an opportunity to acquire a significant amount of market share by diversifying into trade and investment in oil & gas focusing on the specific needs of the market and by providing greater precision controls to their clients, investors & partners than other competitions. The company organized as a closely-held corporation with a majority of the shares held by the principal and the Investors.

Business History

Ahmed retired from a local government municipality department and engaged himself into his entrepreneurship journey where he started his first business member of his group of companies in the year 2006.

Business Ownership

AHRG currently is a Limited Liability Company.

Presently, Mr. Ahmed Al Raesi is Chief Executive Officer and owns hundred percent (100%) of the company.

“AHRG is earning profits and provides excellent return to its clients while at the same time aggressively financing growth of the company to increase yield each year. AHRG has always maintained a friendly, fair, and creative work environment, which respects diversity, product improvement, and hard work”

The Management Team

AHRG's management team and its consultants are qualified professionals with vast experience in different types of investment practices such as open-end, closed-end, equity funds, income funds, growth funds, liquid funds, special funds, project finance & developments and operations and marketing. AHRG's consultants are competent in their fields and have always provided up to date consultancies. In all projects undertaken, AHRG always welcomes any additional person from our investor's group that can contribute to the success of the company to join the Team.

The Business was owned and operated by the founder from the on-set, initially kick-started on a low scale and gradually absorb a small number of employees that covered sales, accounting, investment/finance and project developments, and we all share the same vision of organizing and managing in a creative, innovative fashion to generate very high levels of project delivery success and customer satisfaction. We created a working climate conducive to a high degree of personal development and satisfaction for employees with the very best in customer service - period. We managed the business by setting achievable Balanced Scorecard goals, measuring them, and making mid-stream adjustments as necessary. Some of our Company's top resumes as follows;

About the Founder CEO

Currently In my late thirties, I hailed from the Emirates of Dubai & Sharjah (UAE), I grew up with a strong passion for business & entrepreneurship. The journey to being enterprising is not easy. It involves immense efforts, the risk of losing all your money and the rough road along the way, etc.

Entrepreneurship is a practical activity and I have been very practical in all my life endeavors and I have been through a lot which includes severe business challenging setbacks but been driven by passion, ambition and the strong zeal for success, I kept pushing forward until where I am now, and still looking ahead....
