VISAS Requirements for Germany

When you apply for a Germany VISA, there are certain documents you have to complete before making an appointment. If you are travelling to more than one Schengen country, you will apply to the German Embassy/Consulate in your country if Germany is the country you will stay longer. If there is no significant difference in days in-between the Schengen countries you will be visiting, you will apply for a Schengen visa at the Germany Embassy/Consulate if Germany is the first port of entry in the Schengen Area.

The list of documents required in order for applying for a German visa in a German Embassy/Consulate depends on the type of visa you are applying for.

Application form

Generally, you start with filling the application form which you can download on website. Detailed and accurate information about yourself and the purpose of your travel is required in the application form so make sure you are honest. Capital letters are recommendable, so handwriting doesn't become an issue.

If the applicant has never had a Schengen visa before, he/she must hand the application form and other required documents in person, after making an appointment in the Embassy. In other cases, the applicant can hand the documentation scanned via mail.

Passport

Your passport has to be valid for a minimum of 6 months before the due date in order to be eligible to apply for a Schengen Visa for Germany.

Photo Requirement

Two photos are required per application form. Photos have to apply to certain criteria which you find here!

Accommodation

Proof of booked and paid accommodation in Germany is to be sent to the Embassy/Consulate together with all the other documentation.

If you are staying with friends/relatives, a copy of their ID and Passport, as well as proof that they can support your stay, is mandatory.

Transportation

Purchased return ticket within the planned duration of your trip is required, plane or otherwise.

Travel Health Insurance

Valid health insurance covering the total number of days you will be staying in Germany is mandatory. There are different types of health insurance that you should get before travelling to Germany and a few others that you can get once you arrive in Germany

Return of Entries as per attached entry form

- Please return all entries on the attached electronic form, as well as proof of payment together with the list of competitors and their birth certificates, passport or id copies to UWMAF Headquarters:
uwmafhq@proton.me

- NB: IF NO PROOF OF PAYMENT IS PROVIDED THEN NO COMPETITOR WILL BE ALLOWED TO COMPETE!

Closing Date for Entries:

Saturday, 21st 2024

WEIGH IN:

There will be weigh-in and spot checks may be done on the floor during the course of the championships as well. Athletes found to be outside their weight category will be disqualified.

GENERAL CHAMPIONSHIP RULES

Should any championship rules/arrangements be disregarded, the offending person/participant or spectator may be required to leave the championship venue immediately. All UWMAF Members are required to sign a code of conduct.

Athletes take part at their own risk. No claim may be made against UWMAF or ICO or any of the officials officiating on the day of the championship.

It is the responsibility of every instructor/coach to explain the conditions/rules to each athlete and/or parent before entering the championship.

Any athlete entered in an incorrect age or weight will be disqualified. Coaches must ensure that the correct information is submitted.

Any athlete not reporting to his/her floor after 3 call-outs will be disqualified.

All athletes must wear the respective protective equipment as per the category they are entering failing which they will not be allowed to participate. Equipment shall be present at the competition venue. Our official Equipment provider 5 Elements will have all UWMAF/ICO accepted protection gear as well as competition uniform and it can be purchased at the venue or orders can be placed beforehand.

Coaches and Coaching

Only the appointed coach with his coach's accreditation may coach an athlete whilst preparing for the event. National Federations or others may have more than one coach, provided they adhere to the above stipulations and submit their list of coaches with the entries

Only official tracksuits will be allowed to be worn during the championships.

A coach may only enter the competition area when his/her athlete from his/her province is participating.

The coach whilst busy coaching, must sit in the chair provided and must not interfere with the smooth running of the match by word or deed.

The referee's decision is final.

Non-Combatant Members

No non-combatant member will not be allowed in the competition area. This could result in a participant being disqualified.

No team managers are allowed in the competition area.

If an individual is not the coach, he/she is not allowed in the competition area.

Athletes that are not busy competing will not be allowed in the competition area.

Tournament Administration

No coach/team manager/parent or any other person will interfere with the duties of any Table Official, Chief Tournament Official, Referee or judge. Complaints can be lodged via the tournament director by the relevant team managers.

No changes will be made to any draw sheet by any person other than the Chief Tournament Official.

- Registration Deadlines (The application shall be accepted upon payment of the admission fee.
- Change of competitors after the deadline will not be accepted.

- The entry fee will not be refunded if a participant cancels for personal reasons (including illness or death) after the deadline.
- In the event of cancellation after the deadline due to force majeure, such as natural disasters, the applicant will be refunded after bearing the bank transfer fee
