

Security padlock

"Secret padlock opening with the word 'Maule', made by Mr. Fontaine, locksmith in Maule." V. Aubert Collection.

This is what we learn from reading this label written by Victor Aubert, a label he took care to frame and which we treasure!

This simple object testifies to Victor Aubert's dedication to preserving everything that evokes a bygone era. Indeed, it gives us the opportunity to remember one of the many artisans who settled in Maule, sometimes passing their trade down through generations.

Caption on the postcard: "Rue Maurice Berteaux."
The house still stands.
