Current Scenario of Muslim Education

- Muslims are the most educationally backward group in India.
- Muslims total Literacy rate is 59.1 % which is lower than the national average.
- Muslims are nearly close to 200 million and comprise of 15% of India's Population.

Muslims in Higher Education in India

- Only 5% Muslims get into the civil services in India.
- In 72 years, only 418 Muslims have become IAS officers in India.
- In the Institutions of national importance like IIT, IIIT, NIT, IIMs, IISER Muslims are merely 1.92%.
- Muslims have the Lowest Gross Enrollment Ratio (GER) at 16.6% which way below the national average i.e.26.3%.

Root cause of Muslims for lagging in Education

- The main reason for lower literacy rate is low income or lack of funds due to expensive higher education.
- Lack of our own infrastructure for our education.
- Lack of proper guidance and no proper career counselling.

Solutions for lack of Education

- Better educational Infrastructure.
- Financial support for the poor families.
- Raise awareness on the importance of education.
- Utilization of the resources.
- Increase in quality of education and social security.
